The 6th edition of Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (BF 76.7 P83 2010) contains the complete guidelines on how to cite research in text as well as formatting of material for publication. A web site for APA guidelines, examples and changes from the previous version of the manual is available at http://www.apastyle.org. New: DOI or Digital Object Identifier is to be used for articles from research databases.

Citations emailed from EBSCO databases can be sent in APA style. See the EBSCO family of databases search guide for further details.
